A-04 · OFF THE SHELF

Off the shelf

The Interchange is ours. Jira, off the shelf and used by most teams, feeds it from the platform side, and it carries work to the owner's systems on the other.

No real i3 has been called, but we will be ready.

BUILT AND TESTED ON FIXTURES. NO REAL JIRA HAS BEEN CALLED YET.

> "Existing systems will continue to perform their respective operational functions and remain the authoritative systems of record within their functional domains."
